Issue 19

Term 4 Week 6

Thursday 22 November 2018

From the Principal

Dear Parents

End of Year Reports

We are fast approaching the end of the year and teachers will be writing your child's report in the next few weeks. It is important for us as parents to have a balanced view on where reports fit into our understanding of our children and who they are academically, socially and emotionally. With this in mind we have included some further information on the reports in this issue of our newsletter.

P&F Disco

The P&F Disco takes place tomorrow night from 6.00-9.00 pm in the School Hall. We thank the P&F Committee and volunteers for their ongoing support in providing community events for our families. To ensure the night's success we take the opportunity to point out some important safety reminders:

- Parents are to remain on the school grounds and are responsible for the supervision of their children.
- Children must remain in the school hall area during the disco for their own safety and are not to wander to other areas of the school.
- Toilets: Adults are to use the Hall toilets; children are to use the toilets next to OOSH. No other toilets will be available.
- No alcohol is to be brought to the school or consumed on school grounds or in the parish car park. Food and drinks can be purchased on the night.
- Please assist by ensuring that all rubbish is placed in the bins provided.

The P&F are still in need of some extra volunteers. If you can help, even for an hour, please contact:

pandfstmichaels@gmail.com.au.

Thank you for your support and assistance in ensuring the event is a great success for all our children and families.

P&F Annual General Meeting—Wednesday 12 December, 6.00 pm

The P&F will hold their Annual General Meeting on Wednesday 12 December in the Staff Room. We appreciate the work and commitment of our P&F and hope that as many people are able to join us.

Reflection

Growing up is somewhat of a do-it-yourself project. We've all done it. We build our lives, a day at a time, often putting less than our best into the building. Then comes the realisation that we have to live in the life we have built. Our attitudes and choices that we made have built the life that we now live.

OUR CHILDREN

Prin Scripts Series Six Article 22, Extracts

"There is a Buddhist saying that has two parts to it: "If you want to know your past, look into your present conditions." So, here we are, the product of our past actions and decisions. "If you want to know your future, look into your present actions. This time, our future is in our hands, and in our hands, also, is the future of our children, for they are just starting to build the lives in which they will live and they need our hands to be guiding hands."

"Of all the kindness we might confer on our children, perhaps the greatest is to lead them to realise their potential for goodness and then to live it."

Lord Jesus, You have shown us how to live by giving us the example of your own life.

We read in the Bible that, never asking anything for yourself, you taught others about the Father's love; you healed and blessed the people who came to you in pain and sorrow; you fed them with food blessed by your own hands; and when they were sorry for their sins, you forgave them and restored their joy.

We don't know how to find that joy on our own, but when we do our best to turn away from sin and follow you, we fill up with a holy love that flows out to all those around us.

Thank you for showing us your ways. Amen.

St Vincent De Paul Christmas Hamper Appeal

St Michael's is once again supporting the St Vincent De Paul annual Christmas Hamper appeal.

The mini Vinnies will be coordinating this appeal and are calling for donations of non-perishable food items and coin donations to assist needy families in Western Sydney.

For many people, Christmas is all about family; spending time together, sharing a meal and creating meaningful moments. These moments are precious.

The St Vincent De Paul Parish based delegate currently supports needy families who are in need of food assistance and donations to cover necessary expenses.

We are asking families to consider making donations in the form of food or money. All donated food should be taken to your son/daughter's classroom. Could you please ensure that all food items are in date.

Each learning space has a coin donation box.

We thank you in advance for your kind assistance in this worthy Social Justice action appeal.

All donations will be collected on Monday 17th December.

Social Justice

Thank you to Caylee Stevens for her wonderful suggestion of having St Michael's students participate in a Christmas crazy sock day where the children can wear Christmas coloured/themed socks and donate a gold coin to the St Vincent de Paul Christmas Appeal.

We have already placed our St Vincent de Paul Christmas Appeal boxes in all our learning spaces. The children have already responded to this request, however, the Christmas sock day may be more of an incentive for all our students to participate. Christmas Crazy Sock Day Friday 30 November 2018. Thank you Caylee for putting your learning into action.

School Reports

Finding the right perspective when looking at your child's report

The teachers will be writing your child's end of year report in the next few weeks. As parents, it is important for us to have a balanced view on where reports fit into our understanding of our children and who they are academically, socially and emotionally. There are children who struggle academically and parents who worry disproportionately about their school performance. Some children worry excessively about grades. We, as parents and educators, want our children to work hard, do their best and learn without buckling under the pressure. It's tough to strike that balance. Here are some ways to keep things in perspective.

- Everyone is not getting straight A's. Our job is to help our children focus on more important goals, such as accruing knowledge, determining strengths and interests and developing a love of learning. You don't need perfect results to be successful.
- Yes we do want to see academic rigour, but not at the expense of students leading balanced lives. University may suit some; a trades course others. Some may bypass further education completely. A focus on the value and dignity of the individual will help children grow and make good choices for their futures.
- We need to foster independence and give our children autonomy and the freedom to experiment, problem-solve, self-advocate and make mistakes. Hovering over them may help them do better in school, but it's not the best preparation for when they will have to stand on their own two feet. Overly protective parenting undermines children's competence, independence and academic potential.
- If school is a struggle, point out to your child other strengths and urge them to look beyond academics for a sense of accomplishment. Set reasonable expectations and try not to compare them to other students. Shift the focus to developing traits such as integrity, resilience, critical thinking, perseverance and teamwork, all of which will be equally, if not more, important when they enter the workforce. We short-change these components of a successful life when we overemphasise grades.
- Hammering home the point that an assessment is critical to future success rarely helps students. Instead of asking children how they scored on an assessment, focus on effort and growth. There are many paths to success, and the goal should be to match students with the right fit. Children need to define success on their own terms. After all, success is measured over the course of a lifetime, not just at the end of a school year.

Mrs Danuta Maka, Principal

Maths

Congratulations to Riley Grehan who was the first student in the school to solve a maths problem proposed by Mrs Maka at assembly last Friday.

The school raised $15,821.68 in total with the Move-a-thon day. The money was put towards the purchase of Chromebooks. Riley used his numeracy skills to work out the difference between the money that was raised and the money that was needed to pay for the Chromebooks. Well done!

No Nuts or Nut Products

Please remember not to send your children to school with nuts. There are a number of children who are highly allergic to nuts, sesame seeds and Nutella.

Annual General Meeting 6pm

Wednesday 12th December 2018 in the Staffroom

1) Report on 2018 (incl. Trivia Night & Family Disco)

2) Financial Report

3) Donation to School

4) Voting:

All executive positions in the P&F Committee; President, Vice President, Secretary & Treasurer will be vacated and a new Committee is voted in for 2019.

About the P&F and the roles.

The P&F is a group of volunteer parents that believe in fun & friendship whilst helping the school through fundraising and social events during the year.

The P&F runs both Mother's Day & Father's Day Gift Stalls and breakfasts and morning teas like Grandparent's Day. Some events throughout the year are flexible, in that they can be moved around and/or changed to something else.

The current structure of the P&F is 4 Executive Roles and the Helper's Group. This model has worked well the last 2 years. The Helper's Group has given many interested parents an avenue to assist when they can without having to attend meetings. There is no obligation to help if you can't at the time when the call goes out for helpers.

Each year the elected P&F Executive has the flexibility to run the P&F in a format that works best at that time. Although there are set duties in the P&F Constitution, there is scope to discuss with the school and make the roles your own. Some duties could overlap and be shared or moved around to suit. There may even be additional roles that the Executive 2019 can create for specific duties or events e.g. Morning Tea Coordinator, Social Media Coordinator etc. The old adage "many hands make light work" is very true.

The new Executive for 2019 will receive a full and detailed hand-over from the 2018 team. There will also be opportunity to ask questions and seek guidance throughout 2019 if needed.

Being on the P&F can be a very rewarding experience. It's hectic and it's fun. New friendships are made that can share in the accomplishment of having done something really wonderful for the school.

Any questions? Please email us! - pandfstmichaels@gmail.com, or contact the school.

Please return the note below to the office's P&F mailbox by Tuesday 11th December 2018. Sorry, anonymous forms cannot be accepted
